Mitchell Scored At Convention Of Lawyers

HYANNIS, Mass., July 2 (UPI)—Attorney General John N. Mitchell has authorized "a lawless system of law enforcement," a Georgetwon law school professor charged today.

Prof. Samuel Dash and several other lawyers criticized Mitchell at a press conference as the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers opened its annual convention here.

Dash singled out for particular criticism Mitchell's contention that court authority is not needed for wiretaps in national security cases.
